Bovina Center, N.Y. — "For six years I have not had as good health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. I was not regular and I had pains in my back and was so poorly that I could hardly take care of my two children. I doctored with several other doctors but got no better. They told me there was no help without an operation. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."

When the superior court came in on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Shumway on the bench, the suit brought by Loretta Roma, through her father, Joseph Roma, to recover $20,000 damages from the Climax company, was called on. The case called, Roma is a minor, and while in the employ of the Climax company, which was formerly the Thames River Specialties company of Montville on May 13, 1912, he was caught in a freight elevator shaft between the elevator and a floor and his legs were badly injured. THE FEAST OF LIGHTS AT PARK CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL

Annual Christmas Entertainment Was Held on Wednesday Afternoon.
For the annual Christmas entertainment of the Park church Sunday school an exceedingly pretty exercise, The Feast of Lights, was held in the church on Wednesday afternoon. The Sunday school marched in together bringing a Christmas anthem and bringing numerous mysterious packages. The exercises were opened by Rev. Dr. Howe, who gave the children a short address emphasizing the light and happiness of Christmas and the privilege of passing on this light through the spirit of love, service and mission. This was followed by the Lord's Prayer and by several Christmas songs. Away in a Manger was given by the infant class, and O Little Town of Bethlehem by others. The song "Send Thy Light" was given by Eben Learned, and Holy Night was sung by Mrs. Arthur E. Story. For the Feast of Lights a little girl brought an original address representing Christ, 12 boys lighted as many smaller ones from this for the 12 apostles, and 19 girls lighted theirs from the apostles. After the songs the light of the Feast of Lights was tended this circle of light and each one becoming a light bearer. As Supt. G. L. Johnson called the various classes each brought forward the generous gifts which they had provided for some poorer family and laid them under the Christmas tree with its colored electric lights. Other smaller trinkets and bands of laurel made a pretty decoration for the pulpit platform. Miss Louise Fuller acted as organist for the musical part of the exercise.
Following this a infant class had a gaily decorated tree in the Sunday school room with presents of dolls, games and toys and candy for each member of the Sunday school. The efficient committee in charge were Miss Elizabeth Pullen, chairman, Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson, Mrs. J. Dana Coit, Mrs. Grosvenor Ely, Mrs. Edward J. Graham. The entertainment closed with adjournment to the dining room, where ice cream and cake were served by the social committee, Miss Louise C. Howe, Mrs. W. E. B. Story, Mrs. Henry A. Turrell and Mrs. John F. Rogers.

TAFTVILLE

Sunday School Exercises Held at the Taftville Congregational Church—An Interesting Programme.
The Sunday school Christmas exercises of the Taftville church were held Tuesday evening. The programme represented the actual Christmas customs and beliefs of various countries, showing what a wealth of quaint and beautiful ceremonies have grown up and associated themselves with Christmas day. The following countries were represented: Germany, Norway, Denmark, Austria, Holland, England, United States. The Christmas scenes depicted were as follows: Germany—Little Christmas tree lit with candles; German Christmas carol by Anna Kraus, Sophie Thomsen and Gustaf Thoma; Katie Leopold, Agnes Kloss, Elsie Heberding, Carl Kloss, John Elsie, William Troeger, Lewis Wolke, George Kraus, Herman Kraus; Christmas lady, Clara Thomas; Master Rupert, Arthur Schofield. Master Rupert gave each of the children an apple, and the Christmas lady gave each a cookie.
Norway—Blossom Graham, Ethel Tellow, Dorothy Wood, Thomas Sharples, Carl Kloss. They put their shoes in a row as a sign of family peace, and put a candle in the window to guide the Christ-child.
Denmark—Nyra Yerrington, Raymond Yerrington. They took a bowl of rice and milk up to the attic to feast the fairy who lives there, and they set up a sheaf of wheat on a pole to give the birds a Christmas feast. The village band played four Christmas hymns, and the church choir, playing one hymn facing each pole, sang a compass. The band included Robert Pilling, cornet; Thomas Greenwood, clarinet; D. B. MacLane, violin.
Austria—Anna Brown, Freda Kradel, Lawrence Radice, Robert Brierley and Ethel Hannon. They represented an Austrian family; the parents read to the children the story of the birth of Christ, and then a little child was passed in turn to each member of the family circle, in honor of Christ's birth.
Holland—Thomas Sharples, Raymond Pilling. They boys were dressed in Dutch costume, and they sang a hymn in that language. It was on that day the boys and girls in Holland are given presents. They put out in their wooden shoes for St. Nicholas, and spread down a sheet on which St. Nicholas threw in their presents.
Italy—Amy Pollard represented the Italian people. For it is Mother Goose instead of Santa Claus who gives to the children of Italy their Christmas presents. She explained how it was that she took Santa Claus' place and also why she came on January 6, instead of December 25. She put the presents in a big vase instead of on the tree.
England—Ethel Graham, Katherine Ricketts, Ernest Mayers, Archibald Torrance, Harry Jervis. A Christmas carol was sung outside the church by the choir. An old-fashioned English Christmas mince pie, rich with candied fruit, was brought in, and it was explained why it was oblong and what the candies stood for. A Puritan came in and broke up the Christmas feast, to show that the Puritans tried to abolish Christmas altogether; but the feast and merriment of Christmas were soon restored. Christmas carols were played by George Muddiman in the choir, and the words of a quaint old Christmas carol were recited by the children.
America—For America Santa Claus appeared and distributed presents and candy to all the children.
Five Christmas hymns were sung by the audience during the evening, and there was a song by the primary department and one by the kindergarten.
